

Jennifer R. Curry, Ph.D., teaches in the counselor education program at Louisiana State University. Her research interests include career and college readiness and school counselor induction and development. Her professional experiences include investigating crimes against children and serving as an elementary, middle, and high school counselor. She has published over 50 peer reviewed articles and five books, including Promising Practices for High School Apprenticeships published by ASCA, P-12 Career and College Readiness Counseling (2nd ed.) published by Springer and co-authored with A. Milsom, and African Americans' Career and College Readiness: The Journey Unraveled, co-edited with M. Ann Shillingford-Butler and published by Lexington. She has presented her work nationally and internationally at over 150 professional conferences. Dr. Curry serves as an associate editor for Professional School Counseling, and she has served as a delegate of ASCA's national assembly and President of the Louisiana School Counselor Association (LSCA). She is the recipient of the Ross Trust Award, the Judith Miranti Lifetime Service Award, the ASERVIC Meritorious Service Award, the Biggs Pine Publication Award, LCA's Research Award, LCA's Advocacy Award, LSU's Distinguished Faculty Award, and the Roger Aubrey Northstar Award.